Lyrics for I love yer mind, but I'll eat yer BRAINS!!!.

Baby, listen to me carefully,
If I die before you do, please cut me up small and scatter me around.
      Cause when the time comes and I'm gone,
      it may not be very long,
      before I'm back above ground.

Chorus:
Cut of my hands before you bury me.
Cut off my head before you bury me.
Cause when I die I might come back and I will kill you all then.

I've seen it all happen before:
a pretty girl hears a knock at the door,
she lets him in even though she knows he's dead.
      So let's keep the shotgun handy
      In case I come back as a zombie;
      unload a shell in my head.

(Chorus)

I'm a nice guy while I'm alive,
but that don't mean shit when I die,
cause Zombies don't give a fuck.
      And I may look the way I did,
      but I won't remember you, my friend;
      it's all over when you're undead.

(Chorus)

It doesn't mean I don't love you know and if I became a Zombie somehow,
I'd still love you I my own way.
      I love your pretty little ass
      and the way you wield that axe.
      I love your mind, but I'll eat your brains.

      Brains!!! Brains!!! Brains!!! Brains!!!
